

İZMİT'S ARMENIANS SPEAK
SOUNDS OF SILENCE - IV

EDITED BY FERDA BALANÇAR

CONTENTS

Foreword, Ferda Balancar, 9

Introduction, Raymond H. Kévorkian, 15

"When They Ask Me Where I'm From, I Say 'From Merdegöz,' " 31

"They Wouldn't Even Let Me Have a Small Farm in My Own Land," 43

"The Armaş Story I Heard from My Grandfather," 53

"I Learned My Family's Story When I Was 50 Years Old," 65

"I Found Out I Was From Armaş by Coincidence," 75

A Trauma Transmitted from Generation To Generation, 89

"My Grandfather Grew Tobacco on His Land in Bardizag
– What Crime Did He Commit?," 101

"My Grandmother Used to Say 'İzmit Is My Whole World,' " 113

"My Father Used to Say 'I Want to Kiss Those Eyes of Yours That Have Seen Bardizag,' " 123

In Lieu of an Afterword, E. Aras Ergüneş, 129

Index, 141