

NATIONALISM AND MIGRATION:
THE POST-1950 BALKAN IMMIGRANTS FROM YUGOSLAVIA

by Bayram Ően

Submitted to the Atatürk Institute for Modern Turkish History in partial fulfillments of the requirements for the degree of
Master of Arts

Boğaziçi University
2007

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER I : THE INTRODUCTION	1
CHAPTER II : OTTOMANS IN RUMELIA	12
The Practices of Ekrem Bey from Avlonia	12
The History of Balkans	13
Balkans with Numbers	19
The Committee of Union and Progress	23
The Committee of Union and Progress: Ideologies and Political Life	38
CHAPTER III: THE INFLUENCES OF YUGOSLAVIAN MIGRATIONS TO TURKEY AFTER THE 1950S	51
The Balkan Identities Changing in Turkey; The Ones Coming from the Other Side Of The Water...	51
Balkan Immigrants in Turkey with Numbers	62
Balkans and Problems in the Recent Date	65
Nationalisms and Their Sanctions: Different Communities of the Same Imagination	69
Changing Identities in Eastern Europe: Revolutions in Eastern Europe	70
CHAPTER IV: INTERPRETING THE INTERVIEWS	76
Methodology	76
Introducing the General Hypotheses	87
Historical Experiences of Interviewees	93
CHAPTER V: CONCLUSION	131
BIBLIOGRAPHY	136