

FATİH UNIVERSITY

Institute of Social Sciences

LITERATURE AND EXILE: IMPERIAL IDENTITIES OF ASIA MINOR

A dissertation submitted in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of

Doctor of Philosophy

in

Comparative Literature

by

Emine Yeşim BEDLEK

Supervisor

Assist. Prof. Dr. Agnes BRANDABUR

LIST OF CONTENTS

DEDICATION.....	iii
APPROVAL.....	iv
AUTHOR DECLARATION.....	v
ABSTRACT.....	vi
KISA ÖZET.....	vii
LIST OF CONTENTS.....	viii
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS.....	xi
INTRODUCTION.....	1

CHAPTER 1

THE MILLET SYSTEM: AN OTTOMAN LEGACY IN LAUSANNE

1.1. The Millet-i Rum	15
1.2. The Asia Minor Catastrophe.....	23
1.3. The Treaty of Lausanne.....	31
1.4. Karamanlis: Ethno-religious Conflict in Lausanne.....	37
1.5. Deportation and Settlement of the Refugees.....	47
1.6. Lausanne in Contemporary Debates.....	52

CHAPTER 2

MEMORIES OF EXILE: WITNESSING THE CATASTROPHE

2.1. Oral History Archives of the Catastrophe.....	64
2.2. Fictionalizing the Catastrophe.....	74
2.3. Sophia's Trousseau: Recollecting the Past.....	93

CHAPTER 3

NATIONALISM IN ASIA MINOR: RESOLUTION OF A CONFLICT

3.1. Greeks and Turks: Imagined Communities.....118
3.2. Imperialism in Asia Minor.....143
3.3. Saying farewell to Philothei.....161

CHAPTER 4

IMPERIAL IDENTITIES OF MIKRASIÁTES

4.1. Refugees: The Last Ottomans.....175
4.2. Imperial Lives of the Mikrasiátes.....193
4.3. Mikrasiátes: The Legacy of the *Millet-i Rum*204

CONCLUSION.....213

BIBLIOGRAPHY.....218