

PERSPECTIVES OF TURKEY'S JEWISH MINORITY AND TURKISH-
JEWISH IMMIGRANTS IN ISRAEL:
THE NARRATIVES OF THE MASS-MIGRATION OF JEWS TO ISRAEL
BETWEEN 1945 AND 1955

by

Deniz Nilüfer Erselcan

Submitted to the Atatürk Institute for Modern Turkish History in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Master of Art

Bozüyük University
2009

CONTENTS

I. INTRODUCTION	1
Statement of the Problem and the Aim of the Study	1
Literature Review	13
Story of the Field	17
II. HISTORY OF THE JEWISH MIGRATION FROM TURKEY TO ISRAEL AND THE MIGRATION PROCESS	26
Story of Tranquility, Leniency, Hospitality and Loyalty	31
The Other Side of the Coin	39
Turkey's Diplomacy in the Middle East and the Migration	51
III. STORIES OF DIFFERENT MIGRATIONS	59
Jak's Story	61
Ester's Story	66
Nisim's Story	69
Breaking Down Barriers: What Does the Oral History of the Migration Mean?	74
IV. BEYOND MIGRATION	80
The Sound of Silences	83
Class Difference and Zionism	95
Belonging	123
V. CONCLUSION	132
VI. APPENDIXES
A. Table: Profile of the Informants in Turkey	138
B. Table: Profile of the Informants in Israel	140
C. Photos of Migrants from Turkey in Israel	142
D. Photos of Migrant Families Before Migration	144
E. Publications of Turkish-Jewish Immigrants in Israel	148
VII. BIBLIOGRAPHY	150