

THE SOUNDS OF SILENCE
TURKEY'S ARMENIANS SPEAK

PREPARED BY: FERDA BALANCAR

WITH A FOREWORD BY ALİ BAYRAMOĞLU AND AN EPILOGUE BY ARUS YUMUL

CONTENTS

Foreword, Ali Bayramoğlu, 1

Being an Armenian and an industrialist in Turkey, 5

“I have the right to say I am Armenian”, 17

“When my father became a Muslim, my mother left the house”, 27

“I heard about ‘40 Days on Musa Mountain’
from my grandmother”, 37

“If you are an Armenian, you are going to be a doctor”, 47

Being an Armenian in Malatya, 61

“Do you know why there are so many mosquitoes in Doğubayazıt?”, 71

“It’s only to the people closest to me that
I talk about these things”, 81

“I’m from Kadıköy; I feel a part of this city”, 93

“1915 is not past history and it shouldn’t be”, 101

“There’s nothing worse than being an Armenian in this country”, 111

“I’m a citizen of the Turkish Republic but I cannot consider myself Turkish”, 123

“I only had a problem once”, 131

“Strip me of my rank; I would give my life for this non-Muslim”, 141

“Anyone with a map grabs it and comes up to me”, 151

Epilogue, Arus Yumul, 161

Index, 174